

National Show Hunter Hall of Fame 2018
Nominees for Induction - Ballot

Horsepersons

(Please vote for three)

- Zander Duffield – An outstanding horseman, trainer, and teacher for many years from his base of operation in Michigan. Many Junior and Amateur riders competed at the best shows under his tutelage. His students were top equitation riders and his horses were big winners at such shows as Bloomfield, Chagrin, Grosse Pointe, Harrisburg and Madison Square Garden.
- Randy Mullins – A very successful horseman, teacher, and trainer of numerous champions from his stables in West Virginia and Tennessee. He trained many top hunters, amateurs and juniors who competed successfully and won many championships at the top horse shows. Randy was a much sought after judge who for many years judged the finest horse shows throughout our country.
- Mike Rheinheimer – A winning trainer of horses and riders who learned his trade from his father Stanley. His training facility was at the Chagrin Valley Hunt Club, his horses and riders won championships at the major shows including Devon, the Florida Circuit, Capital Challenge, Harrisburg, WIHS, and The National. Mike was also a well-respected course designer at the top shows.
- Danny Robertshaw – As an outstanding horseman, rider, trainer, and teacher he has won for many years at the top shows throughout the country. Danny is an excellent judge and has officiated at the major shows many times including the Indoor Circuit, Devon, and the Derby Finals.
- Tommy Serio – For many years he has consistently produced top horses who have won Championships at major competitions. During his time at Cismont Manor Farm with Hall of Famers Sallie and Kenny Wheeler he rode an outstanding string of champions at Keswick, Upperville, Devon, and the Indoor Circuit among many others.

Horses

(Please vote for 2)

- Journey Proud– An outstanding Working Hunter, winner of many Championships on the very competitive Virginia Circuit; Keswick, Upperville, Warrenton, Hot Springs, Deep Run, as well as Devon and the Indoor Circuit.
- Polk County - Thoroughbred gelding, ridden by his owner, Gladys Busk and trained by Hall of Famer, Bob Freels. Won championships at Ox Ridge, Fairfield Lake Placid, Childrens Services, North Shore and won AHSA High Score awards in the Amateur Owner division.
- Protocol – Was an outstanding champion at the major shows. Many times he won Championships at Devon and the Indoor Circuit against the best horses in the country. He was trained and brilliantly ridden by Hall of Fame nominee Danny Robertshaw
- Scot To Do – In the Regular Conformation Division he was an undefeated Champion at every show for 2 ½ years including Devon, Indoors and he was also Horse of the Year . Ellen Van Dyke owned and showed him to many Championships in the Amateur Owner division and in 1992 they were champion at Harrisburg, WIHS and The National.

(ballot continues on reverse side)

Horse Show of the Year

(Please vote for 1)

- _____ Brandywine
- _____ Blowing Rock
- _____ Capital Challenge
- _____ CP National
- _____ Del Mar National

- _____ Devon
- _____ Keswick
- _____ Lake Placid
- _____ Menlo Charity
- _____ Upperville

Hunter Derby of the Year

(Please vote for 1)

- _____ Deeridge
- _____ Derby Finals
- _____ Franktown Meadows

- _____ Gulfport
- _____ Upperville
- _____ WEF

Please remember, you must be a supporter of the Hall of Fame to vote.

Friend: $40 – 249, Blue Ribbon: $250-499, Champion: $500 - $999, Grand Champion: $1,000 and up.

Voting deadline: March 16th, 2018

Return to:
National Show Hunter Hall of Fame
P.O. Box 11633
Lexington KY 40576

Name & address of person submitting ballot

Email address

Telephone